

Behavioural Science and Public Health Network

BSPHN Annual Conference, 12th February 2020
Improving people's health: From strategy to implementation

Venue: Enterprise Centre, University of Derby

08:30-09:30 – Registration & breakfast networking

09:30-09:45 – Welcome from the Chair – Dr Jim McManus

09:45-10:00 – Update on Behavioural and Social Science Strategy – Dr Angel Chater

10:00-11:00 – Keynote: Professor Eugene Milne (Newcastle Director of Public Health)

“Public vs Population Health: Striking a Balance”

11:00-11:15 – Break

11:15-12:00 – Poster presentations

Poster presenters will be available to answer questions & discuss their work.

12:00-12:30 – Prize-winning abstracts

Two oral presentations, selected for excellence & relevance

12:30-13:15 – Lunch

13:15-14:00 – BSPHN Annual General Meeting

(non-members can enjoy a walk or further poster viewing & networking)

14:00-15:00 – Making an impact: how to get your work noticed and used as evidence Panel discussion and Q&A

15:00-15:15 – Break

15:15-16:15 – Keynote: Professor Susan Michie, Director of Centre for Behaviour Change, University College London

“ The Climate and Ecological Crisis: Where does Behavioural Science Fit in?”

16:15-16:30 – Final plenary & Close

16:45 onwards – Opportunity for informal networking & socialising at a local venue

Details TBC on the day